

Biography - WARREN PRETORIUS

Warren Pretorius is the founder of Tennis Analytics, a company that provides detailed match analytics, scouting along with detailed statistical reports. Current clients include USTA Player Development, Tennis Canada, over 40 NCAA teams, numerous academies, and players on ATP/WTA tours. Analytics services are also offered at numerous events, including Orange Bowl, events at the USTA Campus, and numerous national junior and collegiate tournaments. Arguably, Tennis Analytics now has the largest video-based match database in the sport.

Pretorius is a USPTA Master Professional, a designation held by less than 1% of teaching professionals. A former NCAA-1 collegiate player, Warren also successfully competed on the USTA senior circuit, winning 10 USTA balls, including four national championships. He was named the 2015 USOC Coach of the Year (Doc Counsilman Science Award).

Pretorius hails from Johannesburg, South Africa and resides in Park City, Utah.
